

Unit	Lesson	Topic	Grammar	Vocabulary	Listening	Writing	Reading	Pronunciation
Unit A	Lesson 1	Present, past and future	Talking about the present; talking about the past; making predictions	revision of present , past and future tenses	common idioms with nouns	Gossip (WB)	Writing a job application
	Lesson 2	Communication			Types of written and spoken English; personal communication; learning a language	Varities of English (WB)		The truth about lying
	Study pages		Infinitives		Double meanings			Intonation and meaning
Unit B	Lesson 3	Making things clear	Defining; correcting wrong statements; emphasising	Defining relative clauses; cleft sentences with "It..."; cleft sentences with "What..."; participle phrases		Radio news (WB)	Describing a scene
	Lesson 4	Sports and games			Dangerous pastimes; how to play sports and games; issues in spectator sports	Cricket (WB)		Problems, problems...
	Study pages			Articles	Conversational remarks			Where's the stress?
Unit C	Lesson 5	Set in the past	Talking about past events and actions; reporting; giving extra information	Past and Past perfect simple and continuous; reporting verbs; non-defining relative clauses	Numbers (WB), go (WB)		Linking events in a story
	Lesson 6	Do it yourself			Instructions for common products and appliances; damage and repairing damage; cooking; parts of the body (WB)	How to do it (WB)		They did it themselves
	Study pages			- ing forms	British and US English			Rising and falling tones
Unit D	Lesson 7	Working it out	Drawing logical conclusions; giving reasons for deductions; interpreting things you see	must/might/can't; second and third conditionals; look/seem/appear	Parts of the body (WB); come (WB)	Life elsewhere? (WB)	Giving reasons
	Lesson 8	In the market-place			jobs and what they involve; careers; success and failure in business; advertising	The new design manager (WB)		Dirty money
	Review Units 1-8
	Lesson 9	Posibilities	Discussing alternative possibilities; saying what things depend on; saying how likely thing are	will and would; depends (on); indirect questions; probability expressions		Street and roads (WB)	Return from Berlin (WB)	Weighing up alternatives
	Lesson 10	Life, the universe and everything				Branches of science; science and the environment; beliefs; things people say (WB)	Reading the tarot (WB)		Science fiction
	Study pages				time	Conversational fillers		Taking notes. Writing a summary (WB)	High key
Unit E	Lesson 11	Evaluating	Comparing past and present; saying if things are worth doing; talking about advantages and disadvantages	Time comparison structures; evaluation structures; causative verbs	Other people (WB)	Panel discussion (WB)	Organising information
	Lesson 12	Yourself and others			Adjectives describing personality; relationships with partners; other relationship	Two jokes (WB)
	Study pages				Pronouns and determiners	Regional accents		Jotting down the ideas. Making a draft and making improvements (WB)	Low key
Unit F	Lesson 13	Right and wrong	Criticising and justifying past actions; talking about mistakes	should(n't) have done / been doing; could/ needn't / might have done	All in the wind (WB)	Mistakes (WB)	balancing an argument
	Lesson 14	Body and mind			Diseases - symptoms, causes and cures; forms of medical treatment; alternative forms of medicine; money (WB)	The limits of medicine (WB)		All the perfumes of Arabia
	Study pages				Degree and comparison	Formal and informal		Understanding implied meaning. Reading a poem (WB)	Disagreeing politely
Unit G	Lesson 15	Using passive	Choosing between active and passive; reporting using the passive; talking about experiences	Passive forms; passive reporting verbs; the have passive	Sports and games (WB)	Oriental spices	Causes and results
	Lesson 16	World affairs			War and peace; politics and politicians; election issues	A minimum wage? (WB)		On the front line
	Review Units 9-16
Final test									